TITLE: Black Valentines

AUTHOR: Stephen Miller

CONTACT: Same / Reindeer Films Ltd. 2076 Tupper Street

READ BY: John Dunning

COMMENTS: The idea of using Valentine's loves - romantic theme as the basis for a thriller is good. So too are using abandoned mine shafts - and a town that was dependent on the mines and is now poor. It is a good vehicle for the youth in trouble picture.

DATE RECEIVED: May 23/80

DATE RETURNED: _____

REACTION: Unfortunately Stephen's outline is too disjointed and riddled with clichés that have been used in many other films. The action is very sensitive and the behaviour of the youths very unbelievable.

\ Bad for the U.S.

AUTHOR: _____

CONTACT: Reindeer Films Ltd. 2076 Tupper St. Mel.

READ BY: Irene Kitzsky (John Dunning)

COMMENTS: A horror story based on murders of young girls in a hard rock mining community by a mysterious killer in a miners mask with hal e light. 3 workers, one older who has 2 daughters who interrelate with the 2 young miners - one of whom is the crazed killer - the father, one of the boys gets killed in the finale one of the girls go crazy - the killer gets away.

DATE RECEIVED: April 10/80

DATE RETURNED: April 15/80

REACTION: A suspense film based on Valentini's is a good idea - unfortunately - there is nothing - new - or original in this treatment i.e. the old laundromat scene with a body in the dryer - no hits or shocks.
